

UT1C-001 Clean work area DEMO

Safety and organization on the jobsite

An organized work area give us the benefit of a more safety place. If the crew members Keep the work area clean it will minimizes accidents. Every time after used any gas powered tool it should be secured to prevent accidents. Any personal trash should never be dump inside the any manhole, excavation or trench. The jobsite security, organization and cleanliness is reponsible of the hole crew.

DEMO:

The utility technician trainee will answer a few question about this Safety and organization guidance.